Location

The property benefits from a very prominent frontage to the A899 Livingston Road, at the Almond interchange, a short distance east of the town centre.

The town has a resident population of 56,000 and is accessed immediately off the M8 motorway, benefiting from easy access to both Edinburgh and Glasgow.

The town has an extensive retail provision incorporating a designer outlet scheme and Retail Park, including occupiers such as Debenhams, M&S and the major supermarket retailers.

The property represents a rare opportunity to secure a high profile position within the town.

Description

The property comprises a purpose built motor dealership facility, internally arranged to provide showroom, office, workshop and parts storage, together with first floor office and additional storage.

The showroom benefits from extensive glazing to 3 elevations and can accommodate 7 vehicles, whilst the workshop provides for 10 work bays.

In addition, there is a detached valeting building to the rear of the site.

Externally, the site is laid to tarmacadam and provides parking and display to all sides for 80 vehicles, with additional parking within a secured yard for a further 80 vehicles.

The property offers scope for alternative uses, subject to planning.
