Location

The subject property is located in Worcester Park, an affluent suburb within the London Borough of Sutton. The property is conveniently located approximately 0.8 miles from Worcester Park Train Station, 2.5 miles north west of Sutton, 3.7 miles north east of Epsom and 4.6 miles south east of Kingston upon Thames.

The site occupies a corner position at the junction of Cheam Common Road and Shrubland Grove, in a densely populated, residential area to the north of Nonsuch Park.

Description

The property comprises a two-storey detached public house of brick construction with a pitched and hipped roof and several single storey elevations at the rear of the property.

The ground floor comprises an open plan bar/restaurant area for approximately 30 customers, with an additional area to the rear providing seating for approximately another 52 customers. Customer toilets and trade kitchen are located to the rear of the property.

The basement comprises a cellar and stores.

The first floor comprises six bedrooms, a bathroom and large storage room.

Externally, there is parking to the front elevation for approximately 22 vehicles and a patio area. To the rear is a large beer garden able to accommodate approximately 100 covers and a patio to the side.
