Location

Stoke-on-Trent is a city in Staffordshire with a population of 256,375 people. It is the largest town in Staffordshire and is located between Manchester, Birmingham and Wolverhampton. It is situated in the upper valley of the River Trent.

The site is located to the south of the Sainsbury's car park at London Road towards the south of the town centre. The land is accessed via London Road (B5041) and the Sainsbury's car park. The area consists of a mix of commercial and residential properties.

Transport Links

Stoke-on-Trent is linked to the nearby M6 motorway. The A50 which runs through Stoke provides an east-west link between the M6 and the M1 motorway.

Stoke-on-Trent railway station is a 15 minute walk from the land and is located on the Stafford-Manchester line. The other railway stations in the city are Longport and Longton both on the Crewe-Derby line.

Description

The site itself is currently used for customer car parking for the Sainsbury's.

The site extends to approximately 1.426 ac (0.577 ha).

Please refer to detailed plan on Data Room to show areas of restricted development on this site due to attenuation tanks.
