Location

The property occupies a prominent, corner position at the roundabout junction of the B2006 Eurolink Way and Crown Quay Lane, on the north edge of Sittingbourne town centre.

Sittingbourne has a population of 54,000 (2021 census) and sits 45 miles east of London via the M2 which is accessed from the A2 / A249 from the town centre and leads east to Dover (34 miles distant).

The surrounding area is largely commercial in character with the large Eurolink Industrial Estate immediately to the east and a number of retail parks and supermarkets a short distance west with occupiers including Morrisons, Home Bargains, Dunelm, Currys, Pets at Home and Dreams.

A housing estate lies opposite with a railway line running across the southern boundary of the site.

Description

Plot 1

The property comprises a former motor dealership with extensive workshop accommodation which is suitable for a variety of alternative uses.

The two showroom areas have capacity for 6 and 3 vehicles respectively and are well fitted with tiled flooring, glazed frontages and suspended ceilings with boxed lighting and heating vents. A number of offices and customer WC's sit to the side.

The rear part of the building comprises a separate bodyshop and workshop with a total of 13 ramps presently. The area has a concrete floor, painted blockwork walls and lighting by LED box lighting and heating by Ambirad strip heaters.

Access into the workshop is via 4 up and over doors in the side elevation with a separate, single point of access into the bodyshop from the rear of the building.

Plot 1 – Dealership
