Location

The premises front Muller Road (B4469) approximately 0.6 miles to the west of junction 2 of the M32 and Ikea.

The surrounding area is a mixture of residential and retail with Aldi and Lidl nearby. To the rear of the site is a railway line with the new Ashley Down railway station beyond, which can be accessed via footpath alongside the site.

The site is in the Ashley Down area to the north of Bristol city Centre. With access to the rest of the city and the wider area from easy access to M32.

Description

The property consists of a roughly triangular shaped site with a commercial building to the rear most recently used for vehicle hire.

The site benefits from a large forecourt with parking for circa 50 vehicles, with the single storey building to the rear currently split up to provide reception area and offices along with a workshop and valeting facilities.

There is a further rear area of parking for circa 14 vehicles.
