Location

The property is located in the London Borough of Waltham Forest.

The property is located on the north side of Grove Green Road (A106), immediately to the east of the junction with Central Avenue. High Road Leyton (A112) is approximately 0.4 miles to the southwest, at the end of Grove Green Road. The A12, the main road from Essex into London, runs parallel and to the south of Grove Green Road.

Leyton Underground Station (Central Line) is approximately a 10-minute walk to the southwest, providing regular services into Central London via Stratford and London Liverpool Street.

A number of bus routes run nearby, and the property is well located for the local road network.

The property is located in a predominantly residential road but with good access to local shopping and other amenities.

Walthamstow is located 2.6 miles to the north, Wanstead 1.7 miles to the northeast, Stratford 1.6 miles to the south and Central London 7.5 miles to the southwest.

Description

The property is a purpose-built community hall of traditional brick construction. It has pitched tiled roofs over the main hall and rear office, kitchen and WC facilities.

There is a later brick-built annex to the rear, which has a flat felt covered roof.

The property benefits from UPVC double glazing and gas fired central heating.

Externally there are garden areas to the north side and rear of the property but no off-road parking.

The accommodation provides an entrance lobby, main hall, office, kitchen and WC facilities in the original 1912 built building. The annex constructed much later and accessed internally via the main building has 3 meeting rooms.

All the accommodation is at ground floor.

The current use of the church will fall under Classes F1 of the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987 (as amended). This allows for a number of community uses, the most common of which are as places of worship, education use and public halls but also as libraries, museums, law courts or the display or works of art (other than for sale or hire).

The property is not Listed or located within a Conservation Area.
